

I would like to comment on the proposal to phase out lethal dose testing. This is a cruel, barbaric form of testing that needs to be stopped if we are truly a civilized society.

I urge you to begin immediate efforts to replace lethal dose testing with non-animal, in vitro testing methods.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Valerie